Baby, I'm still gazing at your photograph
Waiting since you flew and ran away from home
Feeling blue, I'm turning on the gramophone
I've got you so deep in my heart

Darling, now I'm walking down the sandy beach
Searching in my soul, I'm feeling so alone
Maybe you could be faster than you ever know
I am so confused in my mind

U really tore up my world apart
And you broke my heart
And you tore my world apart
You really tore up my world apart
And you broke it
I've got to change it

I've got to change it
I've got to change it
I've got to change it

Crazy, I'm still hoping that you're coming home
Dreaming, let you know i ever need you so
Make a move, can you really make my dream come true
I need to feel loved & alive

But now I'm tearing up your photograph
Wondering why you would like me to be alone
Pretty soon I'll be laughing in the telephone
I have a new love in my life

You really tore up my world apart
You really tore up my world apart
