Struck by your gaze
I can't look no other way
My heart is in your hands
Oh baby, I ain't got no other plans
But do people stay the same
Or do people change
Will you keep your word
Over your heartache

How can we stay together
When we both know somewhere better
Stay together
We've got to grow up
We're far too young to be settling down.
And how can we be together
When we both know somewhere better
Be together
We've got to grow up
We're far too young to be settling down

Dumbstruck by your eyes
I have never learnt to fly
But my head is in the clouds
Oh baby please explain this to me
Tell me now

How do people stay the same
And do women change
Would you keep her word
Open her heartache

You've got to understand that, girl
I ain't sure how things will turn out
I can't promise how the snow will sit
I can't promise anything to you my sweetheart

You've got to understand that, girl
I ain't sure how things will turn out
I can't promise how the snow will sit
I can't promise anything to you my sweetheart

My sweetheart (6x)

How can we stay together
When we both know somewhere better
Stay together
We've got to grow up
We're far too young to be settling down
And how can we even be together
When we both know somewhere better
Be together
We've got to grow up
We're far young to be settling down
Together
