Said the mamma t' the baby in the corn
You are my first born
You shall here on in be known as The Spotlight Kid
Ã¢â¬â the mornin' cry of the rooster
The baby lay alone
Ã¢â¬â the old cow in the green grass
Shed white tears in the red hot sun
Ã¢â¬â The Spotlight Kid stood under the moon that evenin'

Givin' her alibis Ã¢â¬â eatin' her a la modes

Ã¢â¬â the ice cream man searchin' high
Ã¢â¬â low

For his a la modes foe his a la modes
Ã¢â¬â the green frogs croakin' around his abode
Ã¢â¬â the mud cat pond by the old willow road
All night the village waited Ã¢â¬â The Spotlight Kid
never showed
She was up on the mountain
Tellin' her alibis Ã¢â¬â eatin' her a la modes Momma still knew she was the one
She was the one who stole the pie from old Momma Eye
Window bare rockin' chair groanin' like ah grizzly bear
Ã¢â¬â the ice cream man searchin' high
Ã¢â¬â low
For his a la modes for his a la modes
All night the village waited Ã¢â¬â The Spotlight Kid
never showed
She was up on the mountain tellin' her alibis
Ã¢â¬â eatin' her a la modes
