I know a girl in meteor city we used to drive down old crator road and i would hold her hand and she would look pretty didn't worry about the things that we just didn't know
didn't worry about the things that we just didn't know i'd spend my days in this run down cafe working for a room at the top of the stairs and she would work the con man just to be here longer it's the only thing that kept me there I couldn't wait for the cooler night

and i would hold her hand and she would look pretty
didn't worry about the things that we just didn't know and i said oh sophia where'd you get a name like that shes i think she was a move star before i saw before i was born though but i really don't remeber no no she left when i was so young when i was so young

and i would hold her hand and she would look pretty
didn't worry about the things that we just didn't know at night the stars they all jump through the sky with the dreams that i miss so much and i hate the emptyness and the pain inside a little whisky and a womans touch yeah thats good a enough yeah thats good enough

i know a girl in meteor city

Fand i would hold her hand and she would look pretty
didn't worry about the things that we just didn't know
didn't worry about the things that we just didn't know
didn't worry about the things that we just didn't know didn't know didn't know
