Take a look around you tell me what do you see
May look familiar but it don't make much sense to me
Take a look around you tell what do you find Lots of questions but the answers're harder to come by

And the world keeps turning
And the world keeps turning
And the world keeps turning round and round your head

Riding on a mystery bus
Life ain't nothing but a mystery
Got to get around got to get around
Everybody got to get around
Got to get around got to get around
Everybody got to get around

And the world keeps turning
And the world keeps turning
And the world keeps turning round and round your

Riding on a mystery bus
Life ain't nothing but a mystery
