Before you walk out with my heart
Before you tear my world apart
You better think about it
Before you take another step
Before you try hard to forget me
You better think about it

They'll be no more ruby kisses no more tear stained eyes
No more wasting time on your alibis
No more ruby kisses in the middle of the night
No more waking up with these tear stained eyes

Before you walk out that door
Before you take one step more

You better think about it
Before you walk out of my life
Before you cut me like a knife
You better think about it

I don't want to be here when you get here
When you get here I'll be gone
I'll be long long gone

Before you leave me here alone
Before you turn my heart to stone
You better think about it
Before you throw my love away
Before you leave this house today
You just better think about it
