Down in the zombie town people running all around Blind as bats can be the truth they cannot see Keep them blinders on raise the young ones big and strong
And when the day is through not much we can do

Its getting tricky just to see the light
And it's tricky telling wrong from right
Its getting trickier as time goes by Its getting tricky to carry the load
And it's tricky not to explode
It gets trickier as time goes by Rain is falling from the sky on this sunny sunny sunny night

Brother can you tell me why right is wrong wrong is right tell me why Shouldn't be this way again will this problem never end

Will this madness ever cease we need to learn to love
Then they'll be peace

Day in the sun

And I have seen the monster men time and time and time again
They look like me and you and this ain't nothing new You can't stop the sea they say the tide of change must have it's way
One day the tide will turn and maybe then we'll learn

(chorus)

Now brother tell me why
The rain keep falling from the sky
Oh tell me now will we ever see the sun
There's got to be some way we can live as one
