The truth is that I don't know
Which way that I should go
I just wander down each open road

The simple things are hard for me
The toughest things I do with ease
I claim my mind is never closed

Clouds will cover sunshine again
Rain will fall, but all the clouds will pass!

November's Alright
November's Alright

Most of what I do believe
Never get's the best of me
Only I can get to myself.

As I wrote this song
I know what don't belong
I'll toss up on my heavy shelf

Clouds will cover sunshine again
Rain will fall, then all the clouds will pass

November's alright
November's alright

(Guitar solo)

Clouds will cover sunshine again
Rain will fall, then all the clouds will pass

November's alright
November's alright
