Can we live on
In this perpetual dusk day
That changing kind of slows
Into mother night oh yeah
When the thoughts on you
From sights and sounds
And recess
Into the dungeon of a memory... see

Know what your love means
Know your touch
Leads to distraction
Need you much
More than the ocean needs the cosmic love
Of starglow energy
Yeah, yeah, oh, love you so, I do

Dreams mean more to say it than you know
On those bright-lit sunny afternoons
All the thoughts and words you have being mellow
Be mellow, if your little mind has room to think about
It

What are you having for fantasies
Spiral purple jasmine trees
Now take something more from me
A taste of starglow energy

Live a life of peace and love
For ever more

(Guitar solo)
... it's starting to take me higher...
(Guitar Solo)

What are you having for fantasies
Spiral purple jasmine trees
Now take something more from me
A taste of starglow energy

(Instr.)

Now you listen to me
You got to start out slowly
Come on let it take, just let take it you away
And now don't you be fooled by what you have
And I'm certain, that you're gonna find
Exactly what you need
Now listen, take this worthwhile tip from me
Take a little taste of energy
Live/spend a life of peace for ever more
What are you doing?
Don't you turn your back on me
Don't you close that door...
