Over and over
Just as plain as can be
Taken for granted
Out in the open
Easy to see
Taking my chances
I'm counting my shoes
I'm playing a game
Making it easy
Counting in two's
By the time you get started
You're already through
Just a matter of time till it shows
Like reading the headlines
Yesterday's news
Over and over
That's how it goes
Or haven't you heard?
Talking so fast
Only at the same time
Searching for words

It's all about the same thing

Underneath the disguise

Just like they say

If you're looking for answers

Open your eyes

And sooner or later

It's easy to see

Just a matter of time till it shows

Like keeping a secret

Ev'ryone knows

Over and Over
