"Rosewood Bitters" by Michael Stanley
As performed by Joe Walsh

So many roads to walk

I guess that's how it goes

So many words to talk

No one really knows

The ways to say the meaning, or the meaning of the name

Here I am Lord walking down the road

And I'm on my own again

With the Rosewood Bitters

Too much going on today

Hard to draw the line

Can't see going on this way

Justifies the time

The pleasures of the moment, you know it don't seem right

Here I am Lord one more for the road

Good night Irene, good night

And the Rosewood Bitters wake me with a smile in the morning

Oh and the Rosewood Bitters help me with the times I feel blue
