Well I don't know, but I've been told

Two sides to every story

One is right and the other is wrong

Guess it depends which side your on

'cause one man's blessing is another man's curse

One man's drink is another man's thirst

One man's pleasure is another man's pain

One man's loss is another man's gain

One man's lie is another man's truth

There's two sides to every story

Well good guys bad guys all the same

Good guys win bad guys get blamed

I don't care what side you're on

You might be right, you might be wrong

And one man's freedom is another man's prison

One man's honor is another man's shame

One man's guilty one man isn't

There's two sides to every story

One man's heaven is another man's hell

One man's buy is another man's sell

One man's day is another man's night

One man's peace is another one's fight

One man's loss is another one's glory

There's two sides to every story

There's two sides to every story
