Sometimes if you just ask
You'll actually get what you want
And you'll realise that maybe just maybe
It's all that you really need
It's all you need to believe
And as faces come and go and fade away
That one always stays the same

You show me how to love again
You show me how to live again
I feel like I can see again
There's no limit to the winds of change
Show me what I can feel
When I was scared of what was real
Now I feel fine
Now I'm so high
Now I feel fine
Yeah I'm so high

I wanted to drown in my ocean
I felt like a tourist but in my own town
I built me a temple of worship
And they stole my stone watched it all crumble down
Made me a friend on the outside
Got myself together when I saw your face
Saving Grace

You show me how to love again
You show me how to live again
I feel like I can see again
There's no limit to the winds of change
Show me what I could feel
When I was scared of what was real
Now I feel fine
Now I'm so high
Now I feel fine
Yeah I'm so high

Passion is all that you're made of
Your heart speaks the truth but your words tell a lie
It's time to move on past the safe song

I thought if I jumped I could learn how to fly
Lost me a friend on the inside
I picked up the pieces when I saw your face
Saving Grace

You show me how to love again
You show me how to live again
I feel like I can see again
There's no limit to the winds of change
Show me what I could feel
When I was scared of what was real
Now I feel fine
Now I'm so high
Now I feel fine
Yeah I'm so high

You show me how to love again
You show me how to live again
I feel like I can see again
There's no limit to the winds of change
Show me what I could feel
When I was scared of what was real
Now I feel fine
Now I'm so high
Now I feel fine
Yeah I'm so high
