It's easy to see
I'm still
Addicted to you
My mind blanks you out
But my heart
Ain't that fooled
And it broke me down
When I saw you walking
Hand in hand
With him this morning
Cause the thought
That God
Put you here for me
But now it's like you
Don't even call me
The doctors said
Forgetting her
Is the cure
But I ain't
So sure so

[Chorus:]
If I ain't the man
That you want
Let it be
And if I
Ain't the king
That you
Want you can leave
You can make
This pain go away
There is nothing
You can say
I'm incurable

Seems I can't move on
Can't accept someone new
Cause everything they say
Just reminds me of you
Hoping at the men
You once love
Cause all the giving up

I'm incurable

Go on what's wrong with me
I just can put it right
The only medicine
Is you here by my side
But if you love me
Like you said
Then why'd you leave
Yeah
And it's breaking my heart
As I'm trying to let go
I want to be strong
But this time I don't know
I hope that in time
You will come to realize
That you want me
That you want meeee

(Chorus)

Seems I can't move on
Cause everything
They say
Just reminds me of you
Hoping at the men
You once love
Cause all the giving up
I'm incurable

Check it out

The night
That you broke down
And told me failed
So comfortable
In my world
I should've told you
But the song
Is on repeat
I'll show you how much
I'm going to hurt

(Chorus)

And you know
I'm incurable

Seems I can't move on
Can't accept someone new
Cause everything

They say just
Reminds me of you
(Reminds me of you)
Hoping at the men
You once love
Cause all the giving up
I'm incurable
I'll give up
My live for you, girl

(Chorus)

And you know
I'm incurable

Seems I can't move on
Can't accept someone new
Cause everything
They say
Just reminds me of you
Hoping at the men
You once love
Cause all the giving up
I'm incurable

If I ain't the man
That you want let it be
But she was my queen
And I still let her lead
The story of life
Now she is gone
She's already moved on
She was curable
I guess
She was curable
