Sometimes I think to myself am I in it alone?
Cause every heartbreak's the same and every love
don't last long.
All I know, is that I'm so happy when you're around.
It's when you get to creeping around me, a smile drops from my face.
I feel you sleeping around babe, you better be ashamed of what you're doing.
You're bruising, everything we had and now there is no
way we can get it back.
Yeah.

[Chorus]

It makes me feel so sick when you do this.
I'm so confused and I ain't really into it.
Next time you leave I'm gonna follow you out.
So I'll know where you are when you're not around.

Sometimes I think to myself is it all just a game.
Cause everynight she's out flirting & home loving her
the same.
And now it's breaking me down, she said she'd love me
for life.
And it's crazy. How can she lie when I know she's creeping around.
I heard it from a friend that she was sleeping around,
babe.
But you won't find a man who's so faithful
I gave you, everything I had and now I wished that I could take that back.
Yeah.

[Chorus x2]

It makes me feel so sick when you do this.
I'm so confused and I ain't really into it.
Next time you leave I'm gonna follow you out.
So I'll know where you are when you're not around.
(When you're not around)

Where you at girl
Where you at

Cos i gotta know
Said igotta know
Where you at
Let me tell you this

Holding me close and now she's playing me hard.
And everytime we're acting up, it's always going too far.
See I never really thought we would ever be swaying.
That's a demonstration of a motion to change.
Really thought you'd give up on this and that you know.
All the faithfulness, I wouldn't put it past you, no.
Now I gotta find a shorty who's the same you see.
So I won't treat her like you treated me.
Play it out.
