"Fountain"

I want to taste and see
I want to break Your holy bread
I want to sit at Your table
I want to drink of Your holiness

You are the fountain that fills my life like no
Other and I'm thirsty for You
You are the flame that feeds my soul
Oh my Father and I hunger for You

I want to touch Your heart
I want to gaze into Your eyes
Oh Father whisper Your words to me
Your Spirit's all that I'll ever need

Just as a deer longs for water
So my soul longs for You and only You (yeah)
