"Redeemer"

There is a love that goes beyond the Darkness of the soul it is the hope of every man
There is a fountain filled with peace that I have known and tasted
It is too good to understand

Like a calming breeze, You came to me
When I did not have a thing
As Your mercy reigns I am swept away
By the love You have displayed

Jesus my Redeemer
You have bought me with Your blood
You have washed away my guilty stains
And clothed me with Your love

You're my Redeemer
You're my Redeemer
You're my Redeemer
