Your sacrifice is brokenness
A heart that's full of Tenderness come and break me Lord
To seek You in Your righteousness
To find You in Your holiness
Come and take me Lord

That I could learn to trust You
In every way to love You
Strip away all that remains for Your glory and Your Name 'til there's nothing left of me

Burn the kingdoms I have made that You would shine
And I would fade 'til there's nothing left of me
'til there's nothing left of me

Your Spirit is the only One that can conform me
To Your Son let Him move in me  $\frac{1}{2}$
Your grace is written deep in me
You've signed my heart to purity with Your holy blood
