U.O.E.N.O.

A rackless nigga

Fly shit only

[Hook]

This a thousand dollar pair of shoes and you don't even know it

This a thousand dollar cup of lean and you don't even know it

This a half a million dollar car, you don't even know it
I came up from bottom, you don't even know it

My niggas all ride with me on, you don't even know it

Got killers with me right now, you don't even know it

This million dollar watch nigga, you don't even know it

Got a million dollar crib nigga, you don't even know it

You done fucked around and stumbled on the wrong block

You don't even know it

We blowing sour with new jenny's on cop

You don't even know it

See them jewels man it looking like dinner to the wolves

You don't even know it

Man let's think about to get it, let me get another fork

See me know it, you bout that life, come about that ice baby boy

I don't even wanna blow it

The hole from this ratchet, closing that casket, baby boy

They don't even wanna show it

You already know it, so don't be heroic

Run it, I'ma throw it, around my neck

Show you how you sposed to do it

Cause I know how to do it

You just looking stupid

You don't even know it

Anyway these 200 dollar shots in my cup

You don't even know it

Yeah I'm ballin the spot, but I'm so in the cut

You don't even know it
I got a snow bunny named molly on champagne
You don't even know it
I'ma take her home and enjoy that
But shawty gonna know it
