"Don'T Rely On Religion"

in the very last hour
at the end of flesh summon all the power
for a final crash

there's no time for prayers run upstairs in the tower you see jesus? don't care

when the blood runs out it's some kind of fiction never stop to doubt

no buddha who delivers no mahmet fights for you even shiva shivers
in this world of blue

on your final day
you are your only vision there is no god to pray
