"Ready To Fall"

I get a feeling I can't explain whenever your eyes meet mine My heart spins in circles and I lose all space and time

And now that we're standing face to face something tells me it's gonna be OK that I'm ready to fall in love tonight ready to hold my heart open wide I can't promise forever but baby I'll try cuz I'm ready to fall in love tonight

I know you've been watching choosing the moment I've been dreaming of that day no one before you has gotten to me this way And now that we're standing face to face something that I need to say and I'm ready to fall in love tonite
ready to hold my heart open wide I can't promise forever but baby I'll try cuz I'm ready to fall in love tonight

Nothing is certain this I know wherever we're heading I'm ready to go

I can't promise forever but baby I'll try
cuz I'm ready to fall in love tonight
yes I'm ready to fall in love tonight
yes I'm ready to fall in love tonight
