Since you've gone
The moon, the sun, the stars in the sky
Know the reason why I cry
Love divine once was mine
Now youve gone.

Since youve gone
My heart, my lips, my tear-dimmed eyes,
A lonely soul within me cries.
I acted smart, broke your heart
Now youve gone.

Oh, what I'd give for the lifetime I've wasted.
The love that I've tasted.
I was wrong now youve gone

Instrumental

Oh, what I'd give for the lifetime I've wasted.
The love that I've tasted.
I was wrong now youve gone
