Justa 'nother love song, on the radio...
Here we go...
Justa 'nother love song, on the radio...
Hey...

Oh, it was twilight time
We were riding down Vine
The radio zooming
It was pumpin' my mind
I'm thinking girl why you wanna be free?
When everyone was saying we were meant to be
We were hype, huh, like the boys in the groove
At least I thought for a while that was true
But then you said you had to move, you had to get away
'Cause girl, you said you had somethin' to prove

And then it hit me like a ton of bricks
I was broken and I couldn't be fixed
Girl, you got it right in my heart, yeah
I was scattered when I heard the hook
'Cause it made me take another look
And tore me all apart, yeah, whoa...

Justa 'nother love song, on the radio
Tellin' me with every beat
That I still love you so
Justa 'nother love song on the funky track
Thought that I was over you
'Cause girl I want you back

The singing was sad, feelin' real bad
'Cause it truly was the greatest love we ever had
So I feel girl, this is not the time
To break or find your rhythm and rhyme
With everything sweet that we used to do
How could you ever say that I didn't come through?
So hip hop or rock
All you had to do was show a little effort like I
Showed you
You said no

You said I was trash
But I used to be a smash
But then I had a fast crash to the bottom of your so-
Called list
I feel so betrayed by your stone toned diss

And then it hit me like a ton of bricks
I was broken and I couldn't be fixed
Girl you got it right in my heart, yeah
I was scattered, when I heard the hook
Cause it made me, take another look
And tore me all apart, yeah
Oh, no, baby, oh, no darling...
Justa 'nother love song, on the radio
Tellin' me with every beat
That I still love you so
Justa 'nother love song on the funky track
Thought that I was over you 'cause now I want you back

Justa 'nother love song (oh baby)
On the radio (yeah girl)
Telling me with every beat (I really want you)
That I still love you so (I really want you in my world
Now, darling)
Just another love song (Huh, huh, break it)
On the funky track
Thought that I was over you
But now I want you back
Here we go, here we go, here we go...

Justa 'nother, 'nother love song
Justa 'nother, 'nother love song, huh
Here we go, here we go, yeah...
Justa 'nother, 'nother love song
Justa 'nother, 'nother love song

Then it hit me every single day and I remember every
Time and place
Everything that we used to do, yeah
My emotions really start to show
You know I wonder if the writer knows
Every line is true, yeah
It's all about me and you

Justa 'nother love song on the radio
Tellin' me with every beat
That I still love you so
Justa 'nother love song on the funky track
Thought that I was over you
'Cause now I want you back

Justa 'nother love song on the radio
Tellin' me with every beat
That I still love you so
Justa 'nother love song on the funky track
Thought that I was over you but now I want you back

Huh, you know girl, all I gotta do is say down...
Justa 'nother love song, on the radio
Tellin' me with every beat
That I still love you so
Justa 'nother love song, on the funky track
Thought that I was over you but now I want you back...
