We've got a feeling between us
That's even deeper than love
It's higher than any mountain
Baby, honesty and harmony
Is what it's made of

No one understands me
No, no, the way that you do
You get right down inside of me
You're the one I can always turn to

You are my soulmate, now and forever
I can feel two hearts beating as one
You are my soulmate, birds of a feather
Staying together through whatever may come
Together through whatever may come

We've got a special connection
That you don't find everyday, no, no, baby
You read my every expression
'Cause when I feel alone
You always know the right thing to say

We belong together
Oh yeah, it's our destiny
There'll never be another
'Cause I know heaven sent you to me

You are my soulmate, now and forever
I can feel two hearts beating as one
You are my soulmate, birds of a feather
Staying together through whatever may come
Together through whatever may come

You are the best friend I'll ever find
Yeah, baby
We're one in a million and two of a kind
Oh, yeah

You are my soulmate, now and forever
I can feel two hearts beating as one
You are my soulmate, birds of a feather

Staying together through whatever may come

You are my soulmate, now and forever
I can feel two hearts beating as one
You are my soulmate, birds of a feather
Staying together through whatever may come

You are my soulmate, now and forever
I can feel two hearts beating as one
You are my soulmate, birds of a feather
Staying together through whatever may come

You are my soulmate, now and forever
I can feel two hearts beating as one
You are my soulmate, birds of a feather
