I've got to be honest with you tonight
I want this to start off clean and right
And what I have got to say Might make you turn and walk away

But I've got to take the chance I want this to be my last romance

But this is not the first time you are not the first man to love me
This is not the first time you are not the only man I've loved in my life

But I have this feeling and I'm sure I'm right
you could be the only man
you could be the last man in my life,
in my life

Don't ask me to tell you about it they seem just like a dream and the girl in the dream isn't me

but I was lonely and confused, yes and I was afraid of the night
And I needed somebody so bad to make me right

So, this is not the first time
you are not the first man to love me
this is not the first time,
you are not the only man I've loved in my life

But I have this feeling
and I'm sure I'm right
you could be the last man in my life,

If I had known you then things might have been different somehow Will it make the difference, Will it be the difference That I know you now

But this is not the first time
you are not the first man to love me
This is not the first time
you are not the only man I've loved in my life

you are not the first man to love me
you are not the only man I've loved

This is not the first time, Oh,
This is not the first time, Ho-Ho, Yeah
This is not the first time,
you are not the only man I've loved
