[Feat. Lancelot Knight]

Ya why you so so-so-so-serious? and was it just a game?
Di di di did ya lock it well? when we all stayed the same... and
No-no-no-now you so old and now you grown to cold, do do do do you like it Now, well now your all alone, barry me, all alone, shout out out out; I Call your name; shout out out out; all alone; shout out out out; I call Your name. she raised a fit, she, she caused a scean, she looked at me, has
The world has the world crumbled at her feet?
Now words can't explain it, finger prints and empty caseings now the Reepers at my dawn, better off when it's night, these codine dreams will Drown the light, wisers whiskey on my breath I need to get this off my Chest. clouds of smoke and my air rising, I seen it comming from a far and Now my soul look worse with scars it's better off when it's dark a hundred Shots in the bar, raising hell with the game, my heart my heart my heart
It's sings, all alone, shout out out out; I call your name;
shout out out
Out; all alone; shout out out out; I call your name; shout out out out, she Raised a fit, she caused a scean, she looked at me, has the world has the Wolrd crumbled at her feet? all alone, shout out out out; I call your name;
Shout out out out; all alone; shout out out out
