Won't you sit right down and talk to me
Tell me all about yourself
Tell me about these people and the picture up here on the shelf
Is there someone special in your life?
Are you on your own again?
Whatever you may say to me
You can say in confidence

Are you restless?
Do you worrie?
Have you find your peace at last?
Are you still close to your family?
Maybe there's somehing of the past
Do you think about your schooldays?
Where they fun or filled with pain

Well, whatever you may say to me
You can say in confidence

In confidence
We all need someone to talk to
In confidence
Tell me all about yourself

Baby, are you running away from something
Trouble cause by so called friend
But whatever you may say to me
You can say in confidence

Are you far away astrologi?
Do you search for inner life?
Practising a religion?
Or have your own view of whats right?
Have you tried almost everything in life?
Or do you living in a sense?

But whatever we may do tonight
We can do in confidence

In confidence

You can think that you said too much
In confidence
We all needd some of that human tuch

Have you tried almost everything in life
Or do you living in a sense
But whatever we may do tonight
We can do in confidence

But whatever we may do tonight
We can do in confidence
