See your face hard to trace no parking space
Don't know what to do it's Monday
Put the key in start the engine
I can hear my mobile ringing it's Tuesday
When you remind me I forget
Now what the hell did I forget it's Wednesday

There can be only one winner
How come we're just a couple of losers
There can be only one winner
How come we're just a couple of losers

Real estate interest rates
Need somewhere else to keep my faith it's Thursday
I'm no freak or amateur
I just don't know what I am here for it's Friday
Mirror ball mirror ball
Who's the funkiest of us all it's Saturday

There can be only one winner
How come we're just a couple of losers
There can be only one winner
How come we're just a couple of losers

I got no lights on driving around
Wondering if there's any love left in this town
It's Sunday
