If everything is ment to be,
Tell my why you slipped away from me
Since you walked out from my door
My feelings have been growing more
And looking back in time
You're all I ever could ask for (Babe)

Wish my feelings didn't take soo long
Wish I could've seen that I was wrong
Miss soo much of you I can't go on
'Cause everyday you're watching me
From your satellite

You wrote your digits in my hand
I took you as a one night stand
I thought I'd make it without you
But now I know that's soo far from the truth
Look up at the stars
Although soo many you're the one
Woho!

Wish my feelings didn't take soo long
Wish I could've seen that I was wrong
Miss soo much of you I can't go on
'Cause everyday you're watching me
From your satellite

You know I just can't forget you
If only fate would bring us back
I'd never let you out of my heart
I can't ignore this connection
Sick and tired of this pain
I know that we can make it again
I miss so much of you I can't go on
'Cause everyday your'e watching me
From your satellite

Wish my feelings didn't take soo long
Wish I could've seen that I was wrong
Miss soo much of you I can't go on
'Cause everyday you're watching me

From your satellite

You are my satellite (x4)
