Said that you'd love me forever
Love me til the rivers ran dry
Said that we'd be together
Til the stars fell from the sky
We'd love each other til hell freezes over
And birds no longer fly
If I'm ever gonna wish on a falling star
Tonight would be a good time to try

I guess we're gonna run outta water
I can't find a bird in the sky
What never should happen is happening now
I just heard you tell me goodbye

Don't need to see anybody/feeling too empty inside
The worlds going crazy/I'm feeling shakey
I just need a good place to hide
I should have known better when you said you'd never Hurt me or tell me a lie
Guess I'd better break out my old winter coat
It's sure getting cold for July

I guess we're gonna run outta water
I can't find a bird in the sky
What never should happen is happening now
I just heard you tell me goodbye

If you are watching wherever you are
At the last of the stars as the fell
It's a cold day a cold day a cold day in hell
