I never wanted to hurt you I'm sorry if I made you cry
I was a fool to keep my feelings locked up inside Do you think you could forgive me forgive this fool-hearted man Give me one more change to prove it cause now I understand Love's not made of steel it's made of moonlight and midnights of blue Love's not made of steel it's made of passion and dreams coming true
Now I know where I made my mistake hearts are so easy to break
Tears they reveal love's not made of steel [steel]
My daddy he always told me that a man's not supposed to cry

He said son it's a hard world but the hard get by I always had good intentions guess I just never came through
If you let me take forever I'll make it all up to you Love's not made of steel it's made of moments that time can't erase Love's not made of steel it's made of roses and perfume and lace
Now I know where I made my mistake hearts are so
easy to break
Tears they reveal love's not made of steel
Love's not made of steel love's not made of steel
