Where you run is where you hide
Better hope you're hiding well
'Cause when the angle catches you
You know you're damned to Hell

Damned to Hell is what you are
Can you hear the Church Bells toll?
And all the money in the world
Can't save your sorry soul

And when you reach the Pearly Gates
And Peter reads your tale
He'll send you back from whence you came Back to your living Hell

Damned to Hell is what you are
Can you hear the Church Bells toll?
And all the money you have made
Can't save your sorry soul

And I believe there comes a time
When justice does prevail
It may not be in my lifetime
For you that's just as well

Damned to Hell is what you are
Can you hear the Church Bells toll?
And all the money you have made
Can't save your sorry soul
