Everybody's praying for the rains to come
And the snow is gonna fall, down on me
Lost up in the desert with a gun in my hand
And the locust gonna come to find me

Started long ago, in my paper cup saloon
And the back-room boys still carrying that same old
tune
We've just one bottle left, standing on the shelf
I'd better bring it on up, I'd better bring it on up on me

Time to get the wagon and in the back of the car
With the Sheriff and me, singing out of key Sooner than than later, I was up behind bars
Oh, with that empty bottle laughing right at me

And the back-room boys still carrying that same old
Just one bottle left, standing on the shelf
I'd better bring it on up, I'd better bring it on up on me
I'd better bring it on up, I'd better bring it on up on me
