(Female backup during verses: "She's seen")

I never thought I'd live to see the day
Anyone could turn my head the other way
She squirmed beside him, her mind was made
Now she can't say that anymore

I've never done this sort of thing before
Once you get started it ain't all that hard
Then he got up & locked that cheatin' door
Now she can't say that anymore
(She can't say that anymore)

Bridge:
& oh the porch light's burnin'
As she fumbles for the key
Tonight she jumped some fences
But she didn't quite get free
She's as cool as a salesman
As she opens the door
She's breakin' in a new routine
For the man who walks the floor

Mama insisted that I stay awhile
"You're treatin' me as if I were on trial
I never lied to you," she kinda smiled
Now she can't say that anymore
(She can't say that anymore)

(repeat bridge)

(repeat & fade):
Now she can't say that anymore
(She can't say that anymore)
