Waitin' at a stoplight yesterday
As a funeral precession made its way
Through the gates
I watched it roll up a windin' road
Through the field of green
With whitehead snow's all in a row
And it made me think about where I'm at
On my not so straight and narrow path
On the generation mostly undeserved
Blessings that I've had

Had an all american Mom and Dad
Some of the coolest friends you could ever have Found love I thought I'd never find
I can't believe this life is mind

And I'm not plannin' on leavin' yet
But the truth is you just never know
And if this is as good as it gets
Man, I think I'm good to go
I'm good to go

I've said a prayer for the dearly departed
And the loved ones left broken hearted
And traffic started

And I drove away a little more able
To see the good things on my table
For that, I'm grateful
'Cause I've had my trouble, I've had my trials
I've hit the mark and I've missed by miles
Had days when I've been fightin' mad
But the goodtimes have more than outwayed the bad

Got to hold my newborn baby girl
And the hand of a man as he slipped from this world
I've laughed so hard I couldn't stop
Seen the sunrise from a mountain top

Now, I'm not plannin' on leavin' yet
But the truth is you just never know
And if this is as good as it gets

Man, I think I'm good to go
(Good to go, yeah)

I've been thinkin' 'bout where I'm at
On my not so straight and narrow path
And I wouldn't want to change nothin' about this road
With the punches life I've had

Had an all american Mom and Dad
Some of the coolest friends
That you could ever have
Found love I thought I'd never find
I can't believe this life is mind

And I'm not plannin' on leavin' yet
But the truth is you just never know
And if this is as good as it gets
Man, I think I'm good to go
(I'm good to go) I'm good to go
(Good to go-ooo) I'm good to go
I'm good to go (good to go)
I'm good to go (go-ooo)
