

John Corbett "Waiting On A Heartache"

Visit "Waiting On A Heartache" on MotoLyrics.com

If you're waitin' on me to buy you a diamond ring,
A white picket fence and everything that the good life
brings
Honey I'd love to give you all those things
Girl but honestly, if you're waitin' on me
You're probably waitin' on a heartache

Waitin' on phone calls that never come on time
Sleepin' alone without no peace of mind
That's the only life you will ever know
Girl cause I was born with a gypsy soul

So if you're waitin' on me to buy you a diamond ring,
A white picket fence and everything that the good life
brings
Honey I'd love to give you all those things
Girl but honestly, if you're waitin' on me
You're probably waitin' on a heartache

You're an understanding woman now I'll give you that
And no-one would blame you if you're not here when I get back
But I think there's something you need to know
I can't be myself without this life I chose

So if you're waitin' on me to buy you a diamond ring,
A white picket fence and everything that the good life
brings
Honey I'd love to give you all those things
Girl but honestly, if you're waitin' on me
You're probably waitin' on a heartache
You're probably waitin' on a heartache
You're probably waitin' on a heartache
You're probably waitin' on a heartache

Visit John Corbett page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.