Now when me and the boys start drinkin', we start talkin'
Swappin' stories about all the wild women we've known
When the conversation turns, to you baby I've learned
Some things are better left alone

That's a whole other bottle of whiskey
That's a whole other case of the blues
That's a whole other heartache
A whole other headache
A whole other kind of hell that you put me through It's gonna take a whole other bottle of whiskey to talk about you

There's the night you lost my savings out in Vegas
Or the night in New Orleans when you stole my car Well, I can take another swig, to make me laugh about the things you did
But if I'm gonna tell 'em what you did to my heart

That's a whole other bottle of whiskey
That's a whole other case of the blues
That's a whole other heartache
A whole other headache
It's gonna take a whole other bottle of whiskey to talk
about you

That's a whole other heartache
A whole other headache
A whole other kind of hell that you've put me through It's gonna take a whole other bottle of whiskey
A whole other bottle of whiskey
A whole other bottle of whiskey to talk about you
