Well, I see you've got a new boyfriend
Got your mixed-up husband, too
I got 25 dollars in my pocket
Want me to spend it all on you
But I know that you cheat on all of us
That's just the way that you do
Hey, girl, I don't care where you've been
I know, I've been there, too
CHORUS
Woo, woo baby, do you think that that's fair?
Do we really have to be so lonely and so scared
Woo, woo baby, do you think that that's fair?
Well, I know this is up to me and you
We can make this thing turn out like we want to
Well, last time I thought about you
Didn't really think that much
And the last time we spoke you said
You were afraid of my touch
And then you went your way
I stumbled down a highway, I want mine
You know, I think it's funny the Way infatuation gets beat up by the time
CHORUS
Well, i see your life has evolved
Into one big masquerade
And all of those old fools you use to run to
They shot you full of old age
Well, don't go expectin' too much no, no
>From this new love affair
Probably fell flat on it's face
No one here to pick you up, know one who cares
