Send a message to the weak and faint of heart Cast a flame into the sky for all to see Tell the wise man and the fool who are worlds apart
That through His eyes we are all seen equally

But I can't help wonder if Lord, if for You I can be strong
Even though I know when You see me, You can see no wrong
But if I'm to be Your messenger, sometimes I'll surely fail
But I know You're listening and You'll answer when I call Cause I know...

(Chorus)
Every time You see me cry
Every time You see me, You die again...I know

Every time You see me lie Every time You hear me (I can see You) die again...again

I want You to see through me and tell me who I am
You know my vulnerabilities, You know I'm just a man
I can try to run away from You, I can try to hide my sin Just when I think You will let me go, You bring me back again
'Cause I know...

(Repeat Chorus)
