In the searchlights
You could see us as we circled around
Down below us
You were screamin' I could hear the sound
I could see your arms
Reaching up to me

Like a demon
Feel the madness running thru the crowd
We were freedom
From the moment that we hit the ground
And the wild man
He laid the thunder down

Do you remember me?
Like I remember you
In a sea of hands
You came shining thru
In the mist of time
I can see it now

All my life I will remember this
Under a raging moon
For this moment I was born for this
Under a raging moon
Under a raging moon, We were flying there
Under a raging moon, We saw Zion there
It ended all too soon, Under a raging moon

We were out there
When they handed us the rebel's crown
All the headlines
All they tried to do was tear us down
But the wild man
He didn't fool around

Do you remember me?
'cause I remember you
Yeah you won my love
When the dream came true
When my blood ran high

I can hear it now

All my life I will remember this
Under a raging moon
For this moment I was born for this
Under a raging moon
Under a raging moon, We were flying boy
Under a raging moon, It's worth dying for
It ended all too soon, Under a raging moon

Taking me back to better times
We never read the danger signs
Why are the young... Why are the young so blind?

Do you remember me?
Like I remember you

All my life I will remember this
Under a raging moon
For this moment I was born for this
Under a raging moon
Under a raging moon, We were flying there
Under a raging moon, We saw Zion there
