I have a dream
And it's probably crazy
But crazy is nothing new
No, the big surprise would be
What if my dream came true

It's just a day kind of dream
But it's growing stronger
The longer I stay with you
Girl it's taking hold of me
Making me think it could really come true

With you by my side who can say
What stroke of luck might strike today
With you I could ride upside down
A carefree clown
Who keeps turning the heads of everyone in town

Holding you close
I could dream forever
But never find love this real
There's no rhyme or reason there
I'm only thinking of how good it feels

With you by my side who can say
What stroke of luck might strike today
With you I could ride upside down
A carefree clown
And keep turning each head we pass in town

Who said....
We'd never stick together this long
Now we'll prove them wrong again
'Cos no matter how it ends

We'll have a dream
That's completely crazy
But crazy is nothing new
No, the big surprise would be
The look on our faces the day it comes true

With you by my side who can say
What stroke of luck might strike today
With you I could ride upside down
A carefree clown
As we're waving goodbye to everyone

With you by my side who can say
What stroke of luck might strike today
With you I could ride upside down
Two carefree clowns
As we're waving goodbye to everyone in town
