Yeah! yeah!

It happened just this mornin', you know I woke up feelin' so good,

The sun came over the mountain, just like I always knew it would.

Had another dream about music, you know the kind that they used to play,

There was everyone that I love to hear, marchin' to their own parade.

Chorus:

And they were comin' down the road, playin' that rock
n' roll,

And dontcha feel good 'cause they're comin' down the road.

Saw that orpheum theatre, I heard a thousand screamin' guitars,

There was a greasy-haired boy with a wiggle, they thought he was a man from mars,

Rollin' along with the fat man, a piece of country-fried blueberry pie,

I said to myself "let me hear it on the hill, just one time, one time before I die."

Chorus

Yeah!
