Daddy had a band
Played him a little guitar
Traveled in a van
Livin' that rock and roll
People comin' up to the bandstand
Say you can't go wrong
If you play a little bit of that
Creedance Song

It was late one night
Cruisin' on down the interstate
Stopped into a diner
To get him some chilli and fries
Heard the waitress tell a guy
Standin' over by the jukebox
Hey you can't go wrong
If you play a little bit of that
Creedance Song

Well daddy took a shine
To the lil' girl behind the counter
She was movin' her hips to the swamp beat
Right on time
Said could he play her somethin'
She said you can't go wrong
If you play a little bit of that
Creedance Song

Daddy had a plan
He asked that girl to marry
With a brand new wife
They're livin' on rock and roll
Night after night
She whispers oh so sweetly
Hey you can't go wrong
If you play a little bit of that
Creedance song
