"Your Shadow"

And the watch says midday
And the calendar says it's dark outside
And the tv says it's midnight
And you vanish in the falling light

And you
You leave your shadow behind
Yes you
You leave your shadow behind

And we talk in cascades
And we're living by strange designs
And there's something almost splendid
In all this tangled time

And you
You leave your shadow behind
Yes you
You leave your shadow behind

You leave your shadow...
You leave your shadow...
You leave your shadow...
You leave your shadow...
