Once I was walking alone with a friend
And as we spoke I felt the room begin to fade
And as I looked into another face I thought I knew
I realised some other smile was shining through

Chorus:

Another time

Another place

Another face seems to snap into your place

Another time

Another place

Another time

Don't try to talk right now

Just hold me where we stand

You know I need so much to give some time to you

But often when I try I find that other world behind

Another time

Another place

Once I was walking alone with a friend

And as she spoke I saw the room begin to fade

I turned around to find another lover walking by me

Though she wore her hair a slightly different way

(Chorus)

Another place

Another time

Another place

Once I was walking alone with a friend
