Sometimes I've seen you walking among the population Hidden in the margins for a while Sometime's I feel you moving among the population
Flickering through the faces and the times

You're just Dust and Light
You're just Dust
Dust and Light
You're just Dust and Light
You're just Dust
Dust and Light

Sometime's I've glimpsed you integrating a new formation
Glittering in the corner of my eye
I've often known you when infiltrating situations
Slipping through all defences like a scythe

You're just Dust and Light
You're just Dust
Dust and Light
You're just Dust and Light
You're just Dust
Dust and Light

Now I've often seen you engineering the quiet
exchanges

Devising the truth of your long designs
And I've often sensed you turning a corner not paying attention
As you pass through the corners of my life

You're just Dust and Light
You're just Dust
Dust and Light
You're just Dust and Light
You're just Dust
Dust and Light

Now I've often seen you engineering the quiet
exchanges

Devising the truth of your long designs
And I've often sensed you turning a corner not paying
attention
As you pass through the corners of my life

You're just Dust and Light
You're just Dust
Dust and Light
You're just Dust and Light
You're just Dust
Dust and Light
