She made her way
She felt she was to blame
And her porcelain dolls
She's boxed them all
And along the way, she changed her name
Lonesome Pine, rain or shine
Stands alone
Roots unknown
And I'm as brave as you
And I'm as 'fraid as you
And I'm as brave as you
And I'm as afraid as you are too
She let me in
And then, she changed her mind
With a sad echo
She's all her own
She shook the blame
She changed her name
Lonesome Pine, rain or shine
Stands alone
Roots unknown
And I'm as brave as you
And I'm as 'fraid as you
And I'm as brave as you
And I'm as afraid as you are too
