Couldn't ask for a better day, two by two
To the ring to the right point of view
Each retreat to the corner that's defined by you
To the ring to the right point of

Lonely Reign
She is the Boxer, she knows
When and where to strike
He is the Boxer, he knows
No peaceful sleep tonight

Caught the downfall of Pete and May, Ryan too
He did not approve of Rayleigh's mood
Doctor Mike was 'fight or flight' at Dun drum School
To the right to the right point of

No return, no passion left to burn
The Boxers grow weary
Their eyesight, blurry view

Lonely Reign
She is the Boxer, she knows
When and where to strike
He is the Boxer, he knows
No peaceful sleep tonight

All's quiet on the front, Smokey room
Boxer standing tall, peering through
Finding no one left to fight, what to do?
To the ring to the right point of view

Lonely Reign
She is the Boxer, she knows
When and where to strike
He is the Boxer, he knows
No peaceful sleep tonight
