You take me by the hand
A hand's all I feel right now
It's all I am
It's all that I am
YOu think that I'm a man
I beg to differ
For I am her as much as I'm me
You know this moment in time
Is all my life
Every day is each day that's past
Every person alive is everyone who's died
A ship out in the distance
Is here if I draw it
Multiply time by letting it go by
You paint a star
YOu give many years ago
New life and it appreciates it
YOu know this moment in time
Is all my life
Everyday is each day that's past
Every person alive is everyone who's died
