I like the night, so dark you see
You can hide if you please
Take a ship to foreign seas
If the winds are moving right

I like the day because it's mine
To make a rhyme and time to time
You have been a friend of mine
Got my head up feeling light

Slow down diminishing winds
One by one the storms took away my friends
I tried hard but I didn't hear anything, anything You'll catch cold in those old clothes in these diminishing winds

I like the rain if I'm inside
Quinine and limes to bide
I'll rise like an ocean tide
With the moon up flying high

I'll like the sun it's clear to see
There's blue it's true but there's room for me
And a line between love and company
That we never seemed to mind

One more one way sign to do
Don't you let the bitter get the better of you
The answer my friend is gone again
You'll catch cold in those old clothes in these
diminishing winds

I like the night, so dark you see
The Milky Way, the Pleiades
Take a ship to foreign seas
If the winds are moving right

I like the day because it's mine
To make a rhyme and time to time
You have been a friend of mine
Got my head up feeling right

Slow down diminishing winds
One by one the storms took away my friends
I tried hard but I didn't hear anything, anything
You'll catch cold in those old clothes in these
diminishing winds
